Jakob Seegmuller is an attorney who uses his extensive legal experience in estate planning and administration to help individuals and families plan for the future and navigate the loss of a loved one. Jakob's career began in Vancouver, Washington, where his practice focused on estate settlement and probate before incorporating estate planning. He returned to Portland to get back to his roots while still serving clients based in Vancouver. For Jakob, the best part his practice is helping individuals families navigate the death of a loved one with clarity and confidence rather than confusion and frustration.

When not at the office, Jakob and his wife Alexandra enjoy traveling to new destinations near and far from Italy to Vietnam to Peru. If he's ever near a body of water, Jakob's on the hunt for a SCUBA shop and the dive schedule. At home he enjoys sessions of Dungeons & Dragons with friends, or an episode (or two) of Star Trek. His interest in table top roleplaying games has served him well in helping clients tell their family story through the development of their estate plans.

Tightened Bio:

Jakob Seegmuller helps individuals and families plan for the future and navigate the loss of a loved one through thoughtful estate planning and administration. He began his legal career in Vancouver, Washington, focusing on probate and estate settlement before expanding his practice to include estate planning. Today, he serves clients throughout Oregon and Washington from his hometown of Portland.

The most rewarding part of Jakob's practice is helping families move through difficult transitions with clarity and confidence rather than confusion and frustration. He believes estate settlement and planning is ultimately about people, values, and the stories that connect generations.

Outside the office, Jakob and his wife, Alexandra, enjoy traveling to destinations near and far, from Italy to Vietnam to Peru. Whenever he's near the water, he's likely searching for a local SCUBA shop and the next dive opportunity. At home, he enjoys gathering with friends for Dungeons & Dragons or settling in for an episode—or two—of Star Trek. His love of storytelling serves him well in helping clients shape estate plans that reflect their unique family histories, goals, and legacies.
